DAME EDITH HELEN

The plant possesses a strong, vigorous constitution, with large, healthy, dark green foliage. The flowers are produced singly on well foliated strong canes and are of immense size, composed of very substantial, broad petals which curl back prettily, forming a wonderful long pointed bud, which develops into a full, double flower, and is absolutely perfect in every stage of development. The color is a brilliant, yet, soft Rose du Barrie pink and is delightfully and strongly sweet scented.

FRANK READER

It is a large, massive flower with high-pointed center, with nicely reflexing petals of great substance, the long buds in first developing are a light lemon yellow, while the flowers in their half-expanded form reveal a heart of golden apricot; it has a delicious rose apple scent.

A general favorite, rather short in bud, but wonderfully free flowering. In the bud state color is a beautiful, rich yellow, which changes to shades of pink as the flower develops.

MRS. A. R. BARRACLOUGH

Pink sounds uninteresting in a Rose, there being so many of this shade, but in this new variety we have a most distinct and valuable addition of a bright but soft sparkling carmine pink of an even shade, passing to yellow at the base of the petals.

MRS. AARON WARD

The color does not fade as the flower ages, but appears to become brighter. The bud is long and perfect, and develops into a full, double flower of great size and substance; very fragrant.

MME. EDOUARD HERRIOT

Color of this Rose is a gorgeous combination of reddish terra-cotta and bronze with flame shadings; almost impossible to describe; foliage bright and glossy and practically mildew proof.

As a garden Rose will undoubtedly rank with such popular bedding varieties as Radiance, Red Radiance, Lady Ursula, Mrs. William C. Egan, etc. Color, deep salmon copper, merging to salmon pink at the tips of the petals.

MISS ROWENA THOM

It is almost impossible to give a true color description of this Rose. It seems as if all the shades of a desert sunset have been caught in all their splendor and held by this beautiful Rose. The deep center glows with vivid Oriental red, shading to rose, as the bud expands and gradually passing to delicate mauve in the full blown flower. The flowers are large and borne on stems 30 inches long, which are practically thornless.

MRS. ERSKINE P. THOM

A strong, healthy grower, equal in strength to the Radiance type of Rose. Beautiful, dark bronzy green, disease resistant foliage. Rich lemon yellow flowers, very sweetly scented and a very free flowering variety.

PINK PEARL

In color, it is a brilliant, rich cerise pink, the base of the petals touched with gold that lights up the flower wonderfully, particularly in the half expanded bloom. The flowers are full, double, of perfect form and produced most profusely on plants of vigorous, healthy growth.

PREMIER SUPREME

Deep rose pink, sport of Premier, with large, high centered flower. Very long in the bud. Dark leathery green, disease resistant foliage.

HARDY ASTERS (Michaelmas Daisy)

These lovely Fall flowering subjects, which are natives of North America and absolutely hardy in any section of the country, deserve much more extensive cultivation. The following varieties are the cream of the European collections and are well worthy of a place in every garden, since they are so distinct in type and novel in colors. We would suggest that the size of the flowers may be very greatly increased if the clumps are divided each Spring, and each plant grown to a single stem. ## Lilies (Cultural Notes)

Most Lily bulbs may be planted either in the Spring or Fall. Manure or commercial fertilizer should never be allowed to come in direct contact with the bulbs, as this is often the cause of rotting and disease. In planting, dig the hole 6 inches deeper than the bulb is to be set and place some well decomposed leafmold in the bottom of the hole. Over this, place an inch or two of sand. The bulb is then placed on the sand, so that the top of the bulb is 6 to 8 inches below the surface of the ground. A mulch of peat moss or leafmold is very necessary during the Summer, with straw and leaves for Winter covering.

ADVANTAGES OF FALL PLANTING

frost and naturally Perennials will be benefited by protection the first winter. Do not let the roots be exposed to the drying winds when planting is in progress, and be sure to see, that the soil is well firmed around the roots.

- If the winters are too sever to risk planting Roses in the autumn, they may be bought then, because the best plants are always obtainable at that time. Dig a long trench in a dry place in the garden and bury the Roses.
- Each stake marks a bundle of several Roses. The soil should not be too heavy, and in no circumstances wet; and the plants should be buried root and branch, with at least six inches of soil on top of the topmost branches.
- As soon as possible in the spring, they should be dug out, one bundle at a time, and planted, hilling them up with earth until they begin to grow. This is a very sure and effective method of keeping Roses over winter in severe climates, but it is exceedingly important that the Roses be buried in a well drained place, and that neither snow nor water collects about them.
